great game totally cool but the only fact is you have to the things for your aparmen only with currency that cost money. BUT it is still a great game to meat new people. This was one of my first VR titles and I was pretty impressed with it for the most part. The narrative was decent and the production values were strong. It's on the short side (I have finished it once) and while the quality was good the interactivity is a bit limited. If you are looking for an on-rails VR experience piloting a stompy mech and shooting at lots of things this is probably what you want. Note that the content is somewhat adult oriented and there is some mild language that may be too much for younger kids, though tweens and teens should be fine. I wish I could give this a neutral rating based on the interactivity, content length and price point but that's not possible so I am voting thumbs up but would encourage waiting for a sale or a price drop and knowing what you are getting in to.. 75% of the content is recycled from the first game and puzzle-like things are an insult to human mind. There are much better walking simulators than this, stay away.. for some reason i didn't do a review for this no need to say words for valve games except yes

Not Recommended at all!. A casual, and very beautifully artistic, created game depicting the lives of two Preying Mantis discussing the close line between love and death.

You can choose to either play as a male or female mantis with varying routes and dialogue. Speaking of dialogue, you can type exactly what you want to say and the other mantis will respond accordingly - an aspect very rarely played out well in games nowadays. Along with dialogue, you also have a few options to do certain interactions as well as portray various emotions to your partner.

A beautiful gem of a game that provokes emotions, thoughts and potential new perspectives on both love and death.

. Frost Deatherem OrbusVR: Reborn The Unholy Society Mean Routine King Rabbit Trüberbrook / Trüberbrook Metro Sim Hustle If My Heart Had Wings ShockRods Keep Calm & Keep your Powder Dry!:

Earlier this month we opened up pre-orders for ShockRods around our live beta testing. Now the beta testing is done and the findings are being acted upon, it's a good time for us to update you on what's been happening since.

Firstly, we'd just like to say a big THANK YOU to everyone who not only took part in the test weekends but also dropped by to check out the game at EGX Rezzed in April. We loved chatting to you all and hearing all the great things you had to say about ShockRods.

We had an amazing response from players during the beta, and the hugely helpful feedback and suggestions have continued to come in since – mainly through our dedicated Discord channel. This input has been invaluable to us, allowing us to tune and tweak the gameplay. As part of this process, we've made the decision to move the release of ShockRods to late summer 2019. This will allow us to incorporate all the relevant intel that's been gathered, and address everything that came from the betas and subsequent discussions.

The extra time will ensure that we deliver the very best version of ShockRods possible – which has always been and remains our number one goal.

Once again, thank you everyone for the incredible support! And we look forward to seeing you soon in the ShockRods battle arenas!
